

MONTE FORMIGÃO

RED WINE - STRAIGHT BAGA VARIETY

Type: Red Wine

Producer: Maria Rita Falcão Ramos

Region: Beira Atlântico – Terras de Sico

Country: Portugal

Harvest Year: 2016

Grape Variety: Baga

Soil: Clay-Limestone

Alcoholic Graduation: 13.0 %

Winemaker: Alexandre Carril

Winemaking process: The Baga grapes were harvested in our oldest vines in order to ensure the ideal ripening point where the acidity of the tannins is in perfect balance. With partial destemming and fermented at controlled temperatures. Aging In stainless steel and French oak barrels.

Wine tasting notes: Aroma of ripe fruit, with well-defined wild berry fruit, black plum, solid tannins and biting acidity, with hints of coffee, dried herb. Soft, elegant and correct. With a huge bottle aging potential.

Serve: Between 16°C-18°C. It is the ideal choice to combine with fish or meat dishes, such as: cod, “chanfana”, lamb stew or roasted lamb.
