Viña Barracallo Tempranillo 2011

Reading instruction: The following should be read out loud with a sense of pathos and a certain level of pomposity!

Embark on a transcendent vinous journey with the distinguished "Viña Barracallo Tempranillo," an exceptional red wine originating from the heart of Rioja, meticulously curated by the visionary winemaker, Adrián Moreno Llorente, at the esteemed Rulei winery. This red gem, exclusively crafted from the noble Tempranillo grape variety, unfolds like a masterpiece in a glass, adorned with a clear deep ruby hue that beckons connoisseurs to indulge in its opulence.

The olfactory experience begins with an impeccably clean aroma, resonating with a medium intensity that foretells the richness within.

Primary aroma notes enchant the senses with a floral embrace of rose and violet, alongside the citrusy allure of orange peel, and a symphony of berries including strawberry, red cherry, red plum, blackberry, bramble, and black cherry. A melange of intriguing subtleties emerges, encompassing sultana, kirsch, jamminess, a hint of tomato leaf, and the ever-subtle whisper of liquorice. The secondary aromatic layer introduces a touch of elegance, with hints of vanilla, cedar, and a delicate trace of chocolate. Yet, the journey doesn't stop there—tertiary characteristics unfold, revealing the evolving nature of this wine. Fig, leather, earth, tobacco, and savory nuances add layers of complexity, indicating a wine in the process of a captivating metamorphosis.

As the wine dances on the palate, its dynamic personality is unveiled—dry with a pronounced acidity, an assertive display of tannins, a generous level of alcohol, and a full-bodied richness that envelops the senses.

The primary flavors resonate with the aromatic tapestry, featuring rose, violet, orange peel, and an orchestra of berries, strawberry, red cherry, blackberry, black cherry, complemented by nuanced touches of green bell pepper, tomato leaf, blackcurrant leaf, and a hint of medicinal and liquorice notes. Secondary flavors seamlessly integrate, offering the opulence of vanilla, cedar, charred wood, and a delightful interplay of chocolate and coffee. Tertiary echoes of tar, leather, tobacco, and savory elements linger, elevating the wine's complexity and inviting contemplation.

This remarkable red culminates in a medium-long finish, a lingering encore that invites enthusiasts to savor the evolving depth within each sip. Viña Barracallo Tempranillo is not just a wine; it's an ode to Rioja's winemaking finesse, an extraordinary blend of tradition and innovation encapsulated in every bottle. Raise your glass to Rulei, to Adrián Moreno Llorente, and to the exceptional legacy woven into the fabric of Viña Barracallo Tempranillo—a testament to the artistry of Rioja. Cheers to the evolving symphony captured in each exquisite drop.
