Embark on an unparalleled vinous journey with "Viña el Moral," an extraordinary red wine hailing from the prestigious Rioja region in Spain. This exceptional creation, a true masterpiece, is the result of the meticulous craftsmanship of the visionary winemaker, Adrián Moreno Llorente, of the esteemed Rulei winery. Elevating the exclusivity of this wine is its limited production, with only 1400 bottles to grace the discerning palates of fortunate enthusiasts.

Nestled in the heart of Rioja, the Viña el Moral vineyard stands majestically at an elevation of 623 meters above the sea, imparting a unique terroir to the Garnacha grape variety. The wine's appearance is nothing short of mesmerizing—a clear deep purple hue that captivates the eye and hints at the splendor within.

As the first olfactory encounter unfolds, a vibrant and clean aroma fills the senses with a medium intensity, revealing primary notes of blossoms, roses, strawberries, red cherries, blackcurrants, and succulent blackberries. Layers of jammy fruits, blackcurrant leaf, medicinal nuances, lavender, white pepper, and a subtle trace of liquorice contribute to the symphony, while the delicate scent of wet stones evokes the very essence of the vineyard.

Secondary aromas of vanilla, coconut, butterscotch, and cedar interweave with finesse, adding a layer of sophistication to the bouquet.

Tertiary elements of dried blackberry, cooked blackberry, leather, and hints of the forest floor unveil the wine's evolving and nuanced character—an eloquent expression of its limited production and uniqueness.

On the palate, Viña el Moral unfolds its vibrant personality—a dry composition marked by a refreshing surge of high acidity. Medium-low tannins gracefully provide structure, while the high level of alcohol and full-bodied richness create an opulent tapestry for the senses.

Primary flavors burst forth in a harmonious medley, echoing the aromatic symphony with blossoms, roses, strawberries, red cherries, blackberries, and luscious black cherries. Kirsch, jamminess, blackcurrant leaf, medicinal nuances, lavender, white pepper, and a lingering touch of liquorice create a captivating palate.
