TASTING

Beautiful colour with a slight amber hue. The first nose is straightforward, evoking ripe Grenache fruit with a roasted note typical of the Languedoc sun. On the palate, the attack starts out quite silky and quickly becomes denser but without excess thanks to a fresh tannin. The fruit on the palate is characterized by Syrah with its typical touch of black cherry and cocoa. A very affordable wine with a nice complexity conferred by the bottle ageing of this 2017 vintage.
